SWINGIN' AT SUNNYBROOK

The Rob Stoneback Big Band celebrates its 30th anniversary, and there's no better way to do it than playing for some great dancers. If you're too young to know what the great big bands were like, this is your chance. If you grew up during the Big Band Era, you'll hear the music performed with all the excitement and energy of the great names of that era. And you'll hear it in the same ballroom all the bands played!

All tickets at the door—$20.00
